

ABOUT SAM

Hailing from Southeastern PA, Sam Sandler has been mystifying and amazing audiences for over 2 decades with his AWARD WINNING magic shows!

Sam has won multiple first place awards for his style of magic as a childrens' entertainer, as well as awarded Close-Up Magician of the Year 2012 by the Philadelphia region Society of American Magicians. Sam became the first DEAF magician to ever receive this award.

Sam lost his hearing in 2009 and is now profoundly deaf. But he did not let this hold him back. Instead, he embraced his deafness and created a new show called DEAFinitely Magic. Sam is the only Full Time Deaf Illusionist in America. Sam is now on a 45 state national tour presenting his spectacular inspirational magic and illusion show in over 300 schools. He continues to perform in theatres, casinos, churches, and many other venues, but his love of entertaining and inspiring children always remains at the top of his list.

Sam's story of overcoming his disability and all the challenges that go with it has been both in print and on TV. This summer (2014) Sam will be featured in i.d.e.a.l. Magazine, a magazine for Urban Young People with Disabilities. i.d.e.a.l. is an acronym for Individuals with Disabilities Express About Life.
